INTERNATIONAL

The knowledge that God is our “safe place”, our harbor, our shelter in a storm, has carried us through many hard times. And this theme has been one that has resonated with us throughout the past couple years of unrest and turmoil in Carries and in all of Haiti. We have become just such a harbor for many who are fleeing danger in their village, for some families whose living situation left them too vulnerable and exposed in the wake of protests, for young mothers with nowhere else to turn, for young men in desperate need of the financial means to support themselves and/or their family, for brothers and sisters in Christ who are battling yet another spiritual attack on their church family, for some who feel lost and out of place and just need someone, anyone, to accept them and somewhere, anywhere to lay their head at night.

We do not take this assignment from God lightly: even though we have been less able to GO and get out and about to help those in need He has kept them COMING to us. And we know that it is nothing about us that keeps them coming and makes them want to stay. Whether they realize it or not, we know that it is the presence of God in us that allows them to feel safe and secure. We pray, and ask you to pray with us, that His light will continue to shine out of us and the believers ministering with us, and that He will give us many opportunities to share the reason why we have this hope and a peace amid such upheaval and peril.

Due to a spirit of fear cultivated from birth among those living in Haiti even those who claim Christ battle a constant dread of the unknown and the uncertain. And life in Haiti is very uncertain. Please pray with us that we are able to be steadfast in demonstrating lives lived free from this gripping oppression; lives lived in the Spirit God gave us of power, love and a sound mind.

*With Love in Christ,
The Dorcés*
