and see; wonder and be astounded. For I am doing a work in your days that you would not believe if told.”*
Habakkuk 1:5

Please continue to pray:

1. Protection over Wilckly, Dee, and the kids as they serve in Haiti during a time of great instability.
2. For wisdom, clarity, health, energy, and peace for them and all under their leadership.
3. For the means to continue providing for all those under their care in Haiti.
4. For the growth of the ministry.
5. For God’s protection over all of our students and teachers, and those in our churches.
6. For peace for Haiti and its people.

Dear Family,

I am typing this while sitting at my kitchen table, gazing out over the backyard, which turned green almost overnight after a few days of spring rains. This time of year, of new-ness, of fresh air and fresh starts, always refreshes my heart, often weary and chilled from a season of cold and being shut-in (a season that lasted much longer than usual this past year).

I am incredibly grateful for this hope, not just the physical signs of new life and more sunshine, but the reminder that nothing and no one can ever take away the Hope that is found in Christ, our Savior, our Redeemer, our LIFE.

My job has looked a lot different this past year: less visits to Haiti (I was hoping to be there right now), more computer, less travel, more prayer, less updates, more virtual communication...etc. But God has continued to provide me with opportunities to make Him known and raise awareness about Haiti and the ministry there through BHI, and I am so grateful He is still using me and showing me how He is working despite so many things not going as planned. Maybe that’s what He’s showing me through it all. That, again, His plans are always best.

May we all learn to trust Him even when, ESPECIALLY when, whatever is happening makes no sense. That’s when He is getting ready to do something astounding.

*With Love in Christ,
Shaina Ascone*
